Sec. 5. Any physician, midwife or other person who shall refuse or neglect to furnish such information as he possesses concerning any birth or death at which he was present or attended, or who shall refuse or neglect to sign a certificate of birth or death when it is his duty to do so, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a penalty of not more than $50.00 for each offense. Sec. 6. Any person who shall wilfully make any false statement in a certificate of birth or death, or who shall wilfully supply false information intending that the same be used in the preparation of such certificate, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a penalty of not more than $100.00 for each offense. Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the keeper of every public institution to which persons resort for treatment of disease, or for confinement, to require the person in charge of the body of each person who shall die in such institution to supply the information required by this section for the certificate of death, and to obtain such information if it can be obtained from relatives or friends of the deceased, and to report the same to the person required by this section to sign the certificate of death; and it shall be the duty of the person in charge of the body to state over his signature the source of the information for the particulars stated in the certificate. Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the keeper of every jail or prison to report to the Registrar of Vital Statistics the death of any person who shall die in such jail or prison, and to furnish such information concerning the deceased as he possesses, and to state the source of his information. Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the coroner to investigate the cause of death of any person who shall die without medical attendance, or who shall die suddenly when apparently in health, or who shall die in any manner other than by accident, and to certify to the cause of death in such cases. Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the undertaker or person acting as undertaker to file the certificate of death with the Registrar of Vital Statistics, and to obtain from the person who is required by this section to sign the certificate of death the information required for the completion of the certificate of death, and to report the same to the Registrar of Vital Statistics. Sec. 11.
